

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting the following communication :

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, }
AUSTIN, Texas, 11th July, 1856. }

To the Hon. the President, and Members of the Senate.

I returned, a few days since, to your body, an "Act for the relief of Jesse Dean," stating that I had been unable to ascertain upon what the claim of Mr. Dean was founded, for which reason I was unable to say anything in regard to its justice, and was therefore unwilling to approve it. Since then, I have learned that the claim was for supplies furnished for the army of the Republic, and that there was proof before the Legislature of its justness; with this information I shall have no hesitation in approving the Act.

To save trouble to the claimant, if there is no objection on your part, I would respectfully ask leave to withdraw the message and the Act.

E. M. PEASE.

On motion of Mr. Flanagan, the message and bill were returned to the Governor.
